

Desha County Clerk Office was recently visited by a motorcycle organization and Valerie was given a plaque. The organization raises money for sick children and other charitable causes, such as battered women. This organization recently helped raise money for Memphis Cash, a little baby with cancer. The money raised allowed him to get two treatments.

